

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
The Authors	x
Summary	1
1 Introduction	13
1.1 Existing knowledge about diversity in disability	14
1.1.1 Educational experiences	14
1.1.2 Employment experiences	15
1.1.3 Access to goods and services	15
1.2 Aims and scope of the research	17
1.3 Design and conduct of the research	17
1.3.1 Designing the research – choosing the sample populations	18
1.3.2 Sampling and recruitment	19
1.3.3 Sample profile	21
1.3.4 Conduct of interviews and discussions	24
1.3.5 Analysis	26
1.4 Structure of the report	26
1.5 Summary	27
2 Identity and disability	29
2.1 Exploring identity	29
2.2 Sources of identity	31
2.2.1 Disability as a component of personal identity	31
2.2.2 Ethnicity as a component of personal identity	33
2.2.3 Age and gender as components of personal identity	35
2.2.4 Sexuality as a component of personal identity	36
2.2.5 Combined or multiple identities?	37

2.3	Definitions of disability	38
2.4	Views about non-disabled people's perceptions of disability	40
2.5	Summary.....	42
3	Personal and social lives	45
3.1	Experiences of family life and relationships	45
3.1.1	Impact of disability on childhood experiences	45
3.1.2	Impact of disability on family relations during childhood ..	46
3.1.3	The experience of growing up as a disabled child in black and minority ethnic communities	47
3.1.4	Impact of disability upon family relations in later life	49
3.1.5	Impact of sexuality upon family relationships	50
3.2	Family relationships and partnerships	52
3.2.1	Impact of disability on forming relationships and partnerships	52
3.2.2	Impact of sexuality on forming relationships and partnerships	53
3.2.3	Impact of disability on marital relationships and partnerships	55
3.3	Friendships and the social world	57
3.3.1	Social and leisure activities	57
3.3.2	Forming friendships	59
3.4	Experiences in wider communities	60
3.4.1	Local neighbourhood and community	60
3.4.2	Participation in faith communities and religious worship ..	62
3.4.3	The disability community	64
3.4.4	Voluntary work	66
3.4.5	Being disabled in the lesbian and gay community	67
3.5	Summary.....	68
4	Experiences of education and training	71
4.1	Educational qualifications	71
4.2	Making decisions about education	72
4.3	Experiences of compulsory education	72
4.3.1	Experiences of mainstream schools	73
4.3.2	Experiences of special schools	76
4.3.3	Specific issues expressed by black and minority ethnic disabled people	78
4.3.4	Sexuality	80
4.4	Inclusion or exclusion – views about mainstream or special schools.....	81

4.5	Post-compulsory education	82
4.5.1	Decision making around post-compulsory education	83
4.5.2	Experiences of post-compulsory education	83
4.5.3	Impacts of post-compulsory education	86
4.6	Cultural change in the availability of educational opportunities for disabled people	87
4.7	Summary	88
5	Experiences of work	91
5.1	Attitudes to work	91
5.2	Making decisions about employment	92
5.3	Experiences of seeking work	98
5.3.1	Barriers to entering employment	98
5.3.2	Facilitators to finding work	102
5.4	Experiences in the workplace	104
5.4.1	Relationships with colleagues	105
5.4.2	Relationships with employers	106
5.5	Leaving employment	108
5.6	Summary	110
6	Accessing support and services	113
6.1	The benefits system	113
6.1.1	Attitudes towards claiming benefits	113
6.1.2	Awareness of benefits	114
6.1.3	Experiences of applying for benefits	116
6.2	Health and medical services	118
6.2.1	Ethnicity	120
6.2.2	Sexuality	123
6.2.3	Age and gender	123
6.3	Services for disabled people	124
6.4	Housing services	128
6.5	Financial services	131
6.6	Summary	132
7	Exploring disadvantage	135
7.1	Experiences of discrimination	135
7.2	Views about the nature and causes of discrimination	136
7.2.1	Defining discrimination	136
7.2.2	Which groups feel they experience discrimination?	138
7.2.3	The causes of discrimination and prejudice	140

7.3	The personal effects of experiences of discrimination and prejudice	141
7.4	Multiple disadvantage?	143
7.4.1	Gender	145
7.4.2	Age	146
7.4.3	Other factors	147
7.5	Summary.....	148
8	Strategies for the future	151
8.1	Changing attitudes in society towards disability, ethnicity, age and gender	151
8.2	Views about current policy and provision for disabled people	152
8.2.1	Views about levels of support and help available to disabled people	153
8.2.2	Employment-related schemes for disabled people	153
8.2.3	The Disability Discrimination Act	154
8.3	Ways forward and strategies for the future.....	155
8.3.1	Legislative change	156
8.3.2	Raising awareness	157
8.3.3	Increased funding in order to provide necessary adaptations and support for disabled people	158
8.3.4	Integration of disability into the mainstream	160
8.3.5	Consult and listen to disabled people	160
8.3.6	Involve disabled people in delivering services	161
8.3.7	Recognise the diversity of disabled people	162
8.4	Conclusions - placing the concept of multiple disadvantage on the policy agenda	163
8.5	Summary.....	165
Appendix A	Sample profile tables	169
Appendix B	Recruitment documents.....	181
Appendix C	Topic guides	185
Appendix D	Analytical framework.....	197
References	201
Other research reports available	203

List of tables

Table 1.1	Composition of group discussions	22
Table 1.2	Sample profile for depth interview participants	22
Table A.1	African group	169
Table A.2	Caribbean group	170
Table A.3	Indian group	172
Table A.4	Pakistani group	173
Table A.5	Gay/lesbian group	174
Table A.6	White group	176
Table A.7	Other group	177
Table A.8	Group participants	178

